Designers Showcase 2009 at La Selva

Mansions & Millionaires® is proud to announce the opening of Designers' Showcase® '09 at historic La Selva mansion.

Nearly 40 interior, decorative and landscape designers are participating including Valerie Onor, Greg Lanza, Beverly Balk, Bradley - Thiergartner, Rona Levine, Eric J. Schmidt, Anne Tarasoff and Denise Rinfret.

Built in 1915, by Hunt & Hunt, with grounds by the legendary Olmstead Bros., La Selva represents the unusual in the Italianate Mediterranean Style. The interior is chock full of details depicting many of the world's masters in their field, columns carved with gargoyles and critters; iron work, vaulted ceiling, marble floors, a stone staircase that seems to float to the second floor, Renaissance paintings built into the walls, etc., etc. On the exterior you will find, garden sculpture and artifacts, some from the 1st Century AD. This is an estate of many surprises.

Tuesday thru Friday, 10:30AM - 4:00PM
Saturday, Sunday and Columbus Day, 11:30AM - 5:00PM
Closed Mondays except Columbus Day, October 12

Admission is $30.00
